1. The railroad bridge over the Neisse in Goerlitz, known as the Viaduct, is being rebuilt. The work started some weeks ago, the date on which it is to be completed is not known.
2. The Riechenbacher road bridge over the Neisse in Goerlitz has been rebuilt and is nearly ready for opening. Steel girder construction has been used.
3. The railroad intersection in Horka, consisting of lines running approximately north-south and east-west, has now been linked to enable traffic to be switched from one to the other. (See sketch below)

A loading ramp has been built on the line which crosses the border. It is situated approximately 2 kms. west of the Neisse.

4. The railroad bridge crossing the Oder at Frankfurt/Oder is now double tracked, the second track was opened for traffic on or about 23 November 1952.
